ENTRY LEVEL ROLES

RaceTrac has a wide variety of entry level roles! We offer unmatched professional opportunities starting from day one. Unlike other corporate jobs you may be considering, RaceTrac gives you the chance to make an impact right away with opportunities for growth in a variety of departments.

INTERNSHIP

As an intern at RaceTrac, you won't stand on the sidelines. Our internships offer the opportunity to gain hands-on experience within a specific department and have fun while doing it!

CO-OP

Our Co-op will give you the opportunity to work full time for a department on a rotating basis! You'll work every other semester while you are in school, so you are able to get real world experience before you even graduate.

Collaboration Station

Here at RaceTrac collaboration is key. Check out what goes into making a RaceTrac store come to life!

Eager to learn about the method to the madness as it pertains to setting up the inside of our stores? Our Category Management and Food Programs and Offers teams select and implement the products for which we are known and loved for. They ensure RaceTrac always has the most affordable, quality goods that keep our guests coming back to RaceTrac for everything from pizza and snacks to fresh food and refreshing beverages!

MERCHANDISING

CATEGORY MANAGEMENT | FOOD PROGRAMS & OFFERS

Our Accounting, Finance and Tax teams assist with every financial move made company-wide. Our Accounting team validates invoices to report financial earnings, and provides analysis of shrink and margin, while our Finance team focuses on protecting the long-term financial health and stability of the company. Meanwhile, our Tax team works to establish rate changes, manage audits and pay attention to continual adjustments to local, state and federal taxes.

THE NUMBERS BEHIND IT ALL

ACCOUNTING | FINANCE | TAX

Our Real Estate, Construction and Engineering teams bring our stores to life! The Real Estate team has a knack for finding convenient locations where new stores will thrive! Our Engineering team reviews site plans, procures building permits, and manages the design teams. They also handle permitting and negotiating, which ensures that the quality, schedule and budget of each new store is met at every step. Our Construction team then travels across the states in which we operate to oversee the construction of each store from laying the foundation to the grand opening!

MyTrac at RaceTrac

We have some pretty amazing team members.

RENZO B.

It was 1999... I put my plans to be a soccer player on hold and applied for a job at the RaceTrac a few miles from where I lived. It was meant to be a quick stop to make some money and turned into a place I have called home for over half of my life. When I started as an Associate, never would I have imagined that I would be where I am today, leading HR for our Field teams (especially after those first few rocky months of mastering my English). I have spent my career serving the guests who come into our stores each day and now have the opportunity to ensure our team members are set up for success to do the same! It's the people at RaceTrac (guests and team members) that keep me going and loving RaceTrac each day!

ERIN S.

I work in RaceTrac's Special Projects department, helping to manage cross-functional initiatives for the organization! My favorite thing about working on the Special Projects team is the opportunity to work with and get to know people across the entire company. No two projects or days are the same, which keeps life interesting. Also, I love what a fun, close-knit group we have – we definitely know how to laugh at ourselves, and each other!

DANIEL H.

I came to the SSC fresh out of college as part of an internship program put together by RaceTrac and UGA Athletics. I ended up loving it so much that I came back on the operations team as an analyst. Over the past two years my role has evolved from solely reporting to project analysis! I love building reports to help not only our teams in the field, but also our teams here at the SSC. Working at RaceTrac is definitely one of the best decisions I've ever made. I'm very blessed to have had my first work experience be at a company that has a family oriented and fun culture!

Our RaceTrac family of brands looks forward to you applying!
